

USER's SIGNATURE: Name (Last, First)

User Number

PRINT USER's NAME: Name (Last, First)

Sector Number(s)

30 ID ORIENTATION RECORD

For: 30 ID - BEAMLINe

Safety Policies and Resources

Instructor: _____

Date: _____

Affirmation and Clarification of the Safety First Principle.

Orientation to the CAT's Environmental, Safety and Health Plan

Introduction to the CAT Safety Coordinator and the Sector Coordinator, and an affirmation of the importance of bringing all safety and environmental problems and concerns to their attention.

Explanation of the ANL-East "Stop Work Authority" Policy.

General Safety Information

Instructor: _____

Date: _____

Location of safety equipment (fire extinguisher, shower, eyewash station, etc.).

Location of safety documentation (including MSDSs and relevant procedures).

Emergency phone numbers.

Response to alarms and other warnings.

The importance of keeping work areas neat and orderly, and the aisles free of obstructions.

Storage of chemicals and gas cylinders.

Proper usage of radioactive check sources.

Storage of other items (objects may not be stored on top of cabinets at a height of >5ft.)

Restrictions on and proper use of electrical power strips and extension cords.

Procedure for obtaining and using liquid nitrogen.

Disposal of waste, including hazardous waste.

Beamline Safety Information

Instructor: _____

Date: _____

Orientation to CAT's implementation of the APS Shielding Configuration Policy.

Locations of the utility shutoffs for electricity, water and compressed gases.

Explanation of the use of radiation survey meters.

General and beamline-specific operation of the Personnel Safety Systems

Submit a photocopy of this form to the SRI CAT Adm. Asst. upon completion, who will fax it to the APS User Office. If the user does not receive the beamline safety information at the time of initial training, submit another photocopy of this form when that information is provided.

EXPLANATION of use, AND LOCATION of OXYGEN MONITOR SENSOR AND ALARM SYSTEM IN B-STATION.

EXPLANATION ON SEARCHING, EACH EXPERIMENTAL STATION PRIOR TO CLOSING DOORS.